San Benito Health Foundation is proud of receiving NCQA Recognition at level 3. NCQA is a private, non-profit organization dedicated to improving health care quality.

FTCA
DEEMED

San Benito Health Foundation is FTCA Deemed.

The Federally Supported Health Centers Assistance Act of 1992 and 1995 granted medical malpractice liability protection through the Federal Tort Claims Act (FTCA) to HRSA-supported health centers. Under the Act, health centers are considered Federal employees and are immune from lawsuits, with the Federal government acting as their primary insurer.

As a HRSA Health Center Quality Leader, San Benito Health Foundation is in the top 30% of all HRSA-supported health centers that achieved the best overall clinical outcomes, demonstrating high-quality across clinical operations. San Benito Health Foundation is committed to providing quality primary health care services to the community.

Alameda
County
Probation
Department

Our Mission

- To support and restore communities by providing compassionate supervision and accountability to justice-involved youth, adults, and provide preventive and rehabilitative services through evidence-based practices and collaborative partnerships.

Our Vision

The Alameda County Probation Department is committed to making our communities the safest in the nation.

Our Role

- Reduce the impact of crime in the community by providing accurate, comprehensive and timely information and recommendations to the Courts,
- Provide community-based sanctions and treatment for offenders, and,
- Work cooperatively with law enforcement agencies and community organizations with similar objectives.

Our Guiding Principles

We are committed to being an organization that:

- Empowers staff and promotes respectful, forthright communication;
- Engages collaboratively with our stakeholders and the community;
- Promotes diversity and cultural awareness;
- Embodies integrity and ethical conduct;
- Uses research and data to inform practice;
- Provides gender-responsive and trauma-informed care;
- Strives for continuous process improvements through innovation driven by performance-based operations; and
- Honors the belief that people can change

Overview

- The Alameda County Probation Department (ACPD), supervises adults and juveniles up to age 25 who are sentenced to probation supervision in lieu of jails or state prison; those who are housed at the Juvenile Justice Center and individuals who parole from state prison and deemed suitable for community supervision

Alameda County Probation Department Examples of Career Opportunities

JUVENILE INSTITUTIONAL OFFICER SERIES

JUVENILE INSTITUTIONAL OFFICER ASSOCIATE

Incumbents are assigned tasks of a well-defined nature and their supervision lessens as they become more experienced. Juvenile Institutional Officer Associate may be assigned to any shift any day of the week in the above-designated facilities. Incumbents also exercise a care and custodial function over unit dormitory and/or individual rooms on the night shift. Incumbents who perform satisfactorily in this class for one year are eligible for promotion to Juvenile Institutional Officer positions.

JUVENILE INSTITUTIONAL OFFICER

This is the journey-level class in the Juvenile Institutional Officer series. Incumbents can be assigned to work with any group of delinquent or non-delinquent juveniles in one of the Probation Department's institutional facilities, including the maximum-security and mental health units. They are responsible for the care and custody and for maintaining a short-term counseling relationship with juveniles relating to their adjustment to the detention setting by giving guidance on such matters as their group problems and social adjustment. In addition, Juvenile Institutional Officers can also be assigned to work at Camp Wilmont Sweeney where they are responsible for coordinating recreational and work programs, participating in educational and counseling programs, and are regularly assigned group work with a focus on changing anti-social behavior and developing self-responsibility.

DEPUTY PROBATION OFFICER SERIES

This series consists of three Deputy Probation Officer classes in the Probation Department, which, under close supervision at the lower level and under direction at the higher levels, investigate and supervise adult or juvenile defendants or court wards; assist the courts in making detention and sentencing decisions; aid in the social rehabilitation of wards and defendants, including compliance with court orders; represent the Probation Department in court, institutions, foster homes, and community agencies; act as a substitute for a full-time Court Officer, and in Juvenile and Adult Divisions, covers additional court calendars as directed on a part-time basis; perform intensive casework counseling, and related work as required.

DEPUTY PROBATION OFFICER I

Deputy Probation Officer is the entry-level class. Deputy Probation Officer I's are expected to promote to the Deputy Probation Officer II classification upon completion of the 18-month training period, and the STC Basic Probation Officer Training Course and satisfactory performance.

DEPUTY PROBATION OFFICER II

Deputy Probation Officer II is the journey-level classification. A greater amount of previous probation or closely related experience and training is required for this class than for Deputy Probation Officer I. Deputy Probation Officer II's are expected to promote to the Deputy Probation Officer II classification upon completion of four years full-time experience as a Deputy Probation Officer II and satisfactory performance.

DEPUTY PROBATION OFFICER III

Deputy Probation Officer III is the advanced journey-level classification in this series. Incumbents in the class of Deputy Probation Officer III may act as lead worker for unit assignments as directed by the Department; and act as a full-time Court Officer in the Adult and Juvenile Field Services divisions.
